JoAnn's family
welcomes you to this celebration
of her life.

Our goal is to offer an opportunity

for all of us who cared for Jo to come together, surrounded
by things she loved,
and offer comfort
to each other.

We will pray,
recognize Jo's
achievements, share
stories and eat!

This celebration
is meant to lighten
our hearts and
leave us happy
in the knowledge
that we shared
in the life of a most remarkable
woman.

GONE FROM MY SIGHT

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says: "There, she is gone."

"Gone where?"

Gone from my sight. That's all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear the load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says: "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: "Here she comes!"

And that is dying. -- Henry Van Dyke
